Clarkston Consulting Honored Again as One of the “Best Places to Work in San Diego” by the San Diego Business Journal

CARLSBAD, CA — March 6, 2007. Clarkston Consulting, a global management and technology consulting firm, announced that the company was recently chosen as one of the “Best Places to Work in San Diego” by the San Diego Business Journal for the second consecutive year.

"We are very pleased to once again be recognized among the San Diego Business Journal's Best Places to Work," said Paul Garrison, Clarkston's Vice President and Regional Managing Partner. "Our employees' greatest satisfaction comes from providing top notch solutions to our clients' business challenges. It is through their quest to provide the highest level of client service and expertise that Clarkston's people develop and challenge themselves and each other. We do our best to provide an environment that encourages and supports them."

Firms that participated in the 8th Annual San Diego's Best Places to Work Awards were evaluated by an independent panel of judges. Winners were selected based on employee benefits, turnover rate, communication between management and employees, tools used to measure employment satisfaction, diversity record, overall corporate culture, and clarity of mission statement. Nominees were categorized based on number of employees and compared to similar sized companies. Clarkston Consulting was selected as one of the five honorees in the medium sized business category, 151 to 500 employees.
